PARISH OF DRUMCREE

Mission Statement: Our Parish is a Christ-centred community. In Baptism we are challenged by the Spirit to live and share the Gospel message. Through proclaiming the Gospel message to all, Growth in Faith, Liturgy, Justice Issues and Ecumenism we extend our love and care to all people providing support in renewing and deepening our faith. We value the gifts and talents of each of our Parishioners and invite them to use these in responding to Christ's invitation to all of us to follow Him and spread the Good News to the whole world.

Examination of Conscience

A Teacher of the law said to Jesus, 'Master what must I do to inherit life eternal?' Jesus said to him: 'What is written in the law?' What do you read there?' He replied: 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself.' You have answered right', Jesus said, 'do this and life is yours.' (Luke 10:25 - 28)

We look at the ten commandments in the light of Christ's teaching and we see where we fail to love God and neighbour, in the home and in the community, at work, at school and at leisure.

1. I am the Lord your God, you shall not have false Gods before me. 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind' (Matt 22:37)

Is the living God the centre of my life? Are the false Gods of money, power and pleasure more important to me? Do I feel the need of God? Do I live as if he did not exist? Do I pray to him from time to time during the day? Do I turn to him in trust and praise? Do I thank him for his love and goodness.

2. You shall not take the Name of the Lord your God in vain. "All beings ... should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and ... every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord" (Phil

2.10). Do I use the holy name with respect? Have I been guilty of perjury? Do I live up to the name of a Christian? Am I ready to stand by my principals?

3. Remember that you keep holy the Lord's day. "This is my body... This is the cup of my blood... Do this in memory of me" (Eucharistic Prayer). Is my Sunday an expression of my Christian faith? Am I careless about Mass on Sunday and on holy days? Do I look towards the sacrifice of the Mass as the great moment of thanks in my life? Do I put Sunday to good use, or do I waste it in self indulgence? Do I perform unnecessary work for material gain on Sunday?

4. Honour your father and your mother. "He went down with them and came to Nazareth and lived under their authority" (Luke 2:51). Am I a good parent, child, brother, sister? Do I waste family money on drink, gambling or through extravagance? Do I respect those in quthority in the home, school, place of work, Church, state? If I am in a position of Authority, do I use it as Christ would? Do I give time to my family? Do I try to bring happiness to my family and to those around me?

5. You shall not kill. "Anyone who is angry with his brother will answer for it (Matt 5:22). Do I give way to anger? Do I indulge in selfish moods? Do I endanger my own life and health or the lives and health of others by drugs, drunkenness or dangerous driving? Do I respect unborn life? Do I seek revenge? Do I refuse to forgive? Do I use or condone violence, intimidation, threats, bullying? Do I lead others into sin?

6. You shall not commit adultery.

9. You shall not covet your neighbour's wife. "Your body ... is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you since you since you received him from God (Cor. 6:9). Do I respect myself and others as people whose bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit? Do I appreciate sexuality as a gift from God? Am I responsible and generous with regard to parenthood? Have I given in to unlawful sexual passion alone or with another, in act or desire? Do I avoid company, place, conversation or reading matter which lowers Christian standards and may lead to sin?

7. You shall not steal.

10. You shall not covet your neighbours goods. "I was hungry and you never gave me food" (Matt 25:42). Have I stolen? Have I deliberately damaged property by vandalism, waste, neglect? Have I been dishonest in business dealings? Do I do an honest days work? Do I provide fair wages and conditions? Am I honest about taxation, social security and health benefits? Have I made restitution where necessary? Do I contribute a fair proportion of my income to those in need: the poor, the homeless, the lonely and the sick? Have I been selfish in refusing my time to those who look to me for help? Do I support the community in which I live - Church, state, local groups? Do I contribute to the needs of my parish and priests?Â Have I run up debts beyond my means?Â Have I paid back what I owe?Â Have I coveted my neighbours goods?Â Have I been jealous of another's possessions or of their success?

8.Â You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour.

"Never ... cover up the truth with lies" (James 2:14).Â Do I tell lies?

Have I been truthful in my dealings with others - with members of my family, those in official positions, those in my place of work, my friends?Â Do I keep my promises?Â Do I respect confidential information?Â Do I avoid pretence in my conversation and style of life?Â Have I tried to overcome prejudice, resentment and dislike of others?Â Have I injured my neighbour by malicious gossip and slander?

Reflection

Â

Joseph, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife

Isn't it a story of faith?

Joseph, wondering and afraid of what was going on in Mary?

Mary, afraid of her call to be the mother of God?

Fear and faith go together.

You believe in a person and maybe you'll be let down.

You believe in God and you can't pin him down.

So much of life is lived in trust:

that love once promised will last,

that children will be safe and will do the right thing,

that health will last and old age will be safe;

we want our security.

Â

And Mary and Joseph were the same;

wanting security in relationship and religion.

And their real safety was in God.

Do not be afraid, the Lord says;

I am your companion all your days.

And Jesus who became a man in Palestine,

is with us today in bread and wine.

Joseph, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife.

Â

A MINUTE IN EVERY HOUR! Â

AN HOUR IN EVERY DAY! Â

A DAY IN EVERY WEEK
