

Spiritfest 2011

Spiritfest is a celebration of prayer and spirituality organised by the Archdiocese of Armagh to be held in Armagh city from 1st – 3 July 2011. The purpose is to encourage people to deepen their relationship with Christ through prayer by providing them with insights into the deeper Christian tradition of prayer. On offer will be a wide range of prayer experiences, keynote addresses and workshops. Places are limited and booking in advance is advised.

Registration can be made by telephone on 00353 429336649. Alternatively it is possible to register online at the official website where further information about the event is available.
