PARISH OF DRUMCREE

Mission Statement: Our Parish is a Christ-centred community. In Baptism we are challenged by the Spirit to live and share the Gospel message. Through proclaiming the Gospel message to all, Growth in Faith, Liturgy, Justice Issues and Ecumenism we extend our love and care to all people providing support in renewing and deepening our faith. We value the gifts and talents of each of our Parishioners and invite them to use these in responding to Christ's invitation to all of us to follow Him and spread the Good News to the whole world.

Lent: What are you doing?

Fast and Abstinence:Â Are you a Catholic and aged between 18 and 60 years?Â If yes, then you are bound to fast on Ash Wednesday, which means that the amount of food we eat is considerably reduced.Â All Catholics aged over 14 yrs. are bound to abstinence - giving up a particular kind of food or drink or form of amusement.

The Alliance of Filipino Communities in Portadown will speak at Masses this weekend and have a collection for the victims of the recent typhoon in the Philippines.

Drumcree College

The Northern Ireland Commission for Catholic Education in its third recommendation for the Greater Armagh City and District Project Area concerning post-primary education says:Â The Trustees will initiate immediate discussions with CCMS with a view to consulting on the closure of Drumcree College in Portadown, subject to guaranteed access for current pupils to Catholic post-primary provision in the project area.Â This work is to be completed by June 2012. The Board of Governors of the College have organised a meeting in the school on Wednesday 22nd February at 8 p.m.Â All interested welcome.

What will our Parish look like in five years time?

Current Reality/Challenges and Possibilities?

On Tuesday 21st February in Drumcree Pastoral Centre at 7.30 p.m. there will be an open gathering for all interested parishioners on this topic.Â It is one that should concern all of us.Â Some of the issues to be discussed are Church attendances and levels of Sacramental practice, the declining number of priests/religious and the implications of Baptism and the responsibility of the lay faithful. This is an important gathering and the results from these engagements across the Diocese will help to shape the pastoral plan for the next few years. The Parishes of the Pastoral Area will also be attending.

CROSSROADS 2012 ULSTER YOUTH CONGRESS

Crossroads is a new vibrant event organised by the Ulster Diocesan Youth Offices.Â The event is for youth from all over the Northern Dioceses to journey and discover faith through prayer, music, talks, workshops and much more.

Â
Your sins are forgiven

We need to hear these words;
when we feel guilty over things said or done,
when our faults are like a dark window,
or like muddied water,
we need these words of Jesus.

Your sins are forgiven.

Like the paralysed man we need others
who will bring us to the forgiveness of God,
who will carry us in the weakness of our soul
when our convictions seem so fragile.

Then the words of Jesus,
Your sins are forgiven,
like melting snow in winter,
like flowers growing from rocks,
like the touch of someone who is loving.

Forgiveness brings joy and freedom,
like when a person is healed
or like when the burden of guilt is lifted,
like a gift we know we need
but which no one can give but God alone.

If we bring our sin to God,
the words of Jesus
will lift our hearts in hope and joy.

Your sins are forgiven.
